ACTIVITIES

LIVE PERFORMANCE WUNDERBAR-BAND

On Saturday, June 8, at 8:00 PM, the neighbors from Luxembourg will come to Brussels for the last test for the Belgian Red Devils before the European Championship. The Royal Belgian Football Association (RBFA) is making sure it will be a grand farewell. On Sunday, May 5, 1,500 fans gave their all for the recording of the European Championship song «Wunderbar.» The song will be performed live at the King Baudouin Stadium before and after the farewell match against Luxembourg.

ACTIVITIES

FAREWELL TO FORMER BELGIAN RED DEVIL KEVIN MIRALLAS

The Wunderbar Band sets the tone, but the Royal Belgian Football Association (RBFA) is counting on the many fans to give the Red Devils a push towards the European Championship. A song by and for the supporters, that is «Wunderbar.» And one those supporters is already known: Kevin Mirallas. He is not only coming to give the Belgian Red Devils an extra boost, but he will also be bid farewell as Belgian Red Devil and will be sent off by the fans.

ACTIVITIES

GET YOUR WUNDERBAR SHIRT THANKS TO ING

We have launched our EURO 2024 song called Wunderbar. To get fully into the spirit, matching t-shirts have also been made. Get your hands on a Wunderbar t-shirt offered by our partner ING.

TICKETING

TICKETING INFORMATION

Don't forget to bring your tickets (paper or digital) to the stadium.

To speed up the scanning of the tickets and thus the influx of supporters, we ask you to have your printed or digital ticket(s) ready before you are at the entrance.

If you are using a digital ticket on your smartphone, set the screen brightness to maximum so that the scanner can easily recognise the QR code on your ticket.

Don't forget to turn off dark mode if you're using that functionality. Otherwise, the QR code cannot be scanned.

IMPORTANT
You bought tickets online and they are not displayed in the RBFA App? Make sure you have the latest version of the app.

Do you have any questions? Send them by email to info@ticketing.rbfa.be.
